MAYOR'S COURT .- The week closed quietly, n culprite appeared, the dockets were empty, and for the nonce Othello's occupation was gone. This state of affairs argues good to the community, but but we fear that it is only a temporary effort on the part of the evil deers and they will soon roturn to their former practices.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-Hon. THOS. W. OLOVER, presiding.—The Summary Process Docket was called, and a few caves heard, decrees rendered, &c., when the Court adjourned sine dic. The June term will commence in a few weeks and the legal fraternity are already making pre-parations for that event. We understand that here will be full deckets, both criminal and civil. U. S. Count.-Hon. Geo. S. BEYAN, Presiding.

Mr. Paesron Sill, having made application to be appointed commissioner of the United States for Columbia, and the applicant having taken the eath of office, test onth, &c., it was ordered that he be appointed, as craved in the petition. Burren.-A now and convenient way of propar ing butter for the rotal marke has been brought to our notice, with a neat two and a half pound package of fresh table butter, packed at the dairy expressly for family use, and for sale by War. Gun-NET, No. 112 East Bay. The patentee claims that an innocuous preparation saturates the box, which protects it from contact with its contents and roudors it perfectly impervious to air or water, con-sequently no butter reaches the consumer with loss deterioration from its original purity and THE Richmond Whig says, the proprietors of Tredogar Works in this city are now constructing an iron railroad bridge for the Columbia and Augusta Railroad, to be thrown across the Conga-ree river, near Columbia, South Carolina. The bridge is of the FINE pattern, and will consist Arst, of three spans of eighty feet each, then three spans of one hundred and sixty feet each, and then four spans of eighty feet each, in all ten spans, of the aggregate length of one thousand and forty feet. The width of the bridge will be twelve feet, and three spans are already finished. They hav also just finished a bridge of the same pattern for the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, to be put up over the Cahawba River. The GUARD VESSELS FOR QUARANTINE .- The United

s medical authorities, through our follow-n, Wm. Roacn, Esq., has chartered the brig Mary Cobb, Captam Farante, which vessel is ex-pected immediately here from Port Hoyal, and wil ground below this port, for the enforcement of the rig A. B. STOLEN KEYS .- Thefts and burglaries have been recently of such frequent occurrence that scarcely a wook passes without some attempt at robbery boing made. To effect a safe entrance into the different houses, it has become customary for some of the gang to purion the keys, and as there is a singular carelessness among housekeepers in guarding this property, the theft is often accom-plished without any trouble. When the less is iscovered, precautions are taken that will proven hops. Latterly a number of thofts of this description have taken place, and we would warm all persons to watch their doors, or they may come The key of the State Court House was recontly stolen by some of these designing ras-cals, and though they could not have expected to made any haul in that locality, yot she key itself was valuable, being a huge, ponderous in-strument, which, from its weight, would have brought a fair price in a junk-shop. key has been procured, and care will be taken in future to keep the rascals at a distance.

DEBow's REVIEW for April and May is published in one number. Prof. DeBow's hoirs are the present proprie ors, and Messrs. R. G. BARNWELL EDWIN Q. BELL, Editors. We already stated a few days ago, that the future of the Review is as ye undetermined, but that in all probability it will be continued. The leading papers of the present number are: 1. Aspects of the Hour, by Prof. Holmes, of Virginia. 2. Exodus from the South, by Geo. Frizhvon, of Virginia. 8. Edinburgh and its Associations, by CARTE BLANCHE. 4. Broad-stuffs and Cotton, by WM. CATTLE FROM FLORIDA.—Fow persons who have ever visited our meat markets can avoid a com parison between their condition at present and what it was in the past. Then the rich, red color of the meat was a pleasing contrast to the white fat that covered it; but this is now changed, and either the quantity nor the quality are the same. The best Dyspeptic Bitters now in use are PARYMIN's Hepatic Bitters. They never fall to give relief. Try a bottle, and be convinced. For eale by all Druggists. m A walk through the markets produces only vexa-tion of spirit, for the skinny, dark meat offered for sale is not sufficiently tempting to invite purchasers, while from the prices demanded—25@30 cents per pound—only a few are enabled to invest. The butchers of Charleston are, perhaps, not responsible for the lean and scraggy look of their meat, for the State has been entire y drained of all mest, for the State has been entire y drained of all good beef cattle, and it is frequently impossible to obtain them from Tennessee and the other States that formerly supplied this market. At the close of the war every farmer was anxious to obtain a few of the covoted greenbucks, and his cattle were at once driven to Charleston and sold. Since that time the fallers of the recovered that time the failure of the crops and the want of sufficient attention has made the few remaining beeves to be found in the country poor and in bad

A good meat market is almost indispensible to the health of a city, for vegetables and fish are often taboood in the summer, and to a laboring man beef is a necessity, but the deleterious character of that now offered for sale frequently provents its nee. During the summer months this ovil will be increased, and, though kept in ice, the meat dealers will find their stock become "stale, flat and un-

Formerly many head of cattle were brought Formerly many head of cattle were brought from Florida, and as that State did not suffer to any extent during the war, large droves are still to be obtained from the same source. The differ-ent boate plying between this city and Florida do not pay much ever their expenses in the summer months; but if some enterprising character could be found who would give the cattle trade an impetus, it would prove a renumerative speculation.

By the introduction of good meet into the market, the viliatious substitute now offered for sale would disappear, the prices would fall, and the market become improved. As the steamers on the completed and Savannah lines have extensive accom-
